MOTION TO QUASH "BIG" INDICTMENT

Argument in Davis and Bishop Case Continues Throughout Day.

AFFIDAVIT IS PRESENTED

Sets Out That Fair and Impartial Trial Will Not Be Possible.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.
109 North Sycamore Street.
Petersburg, Va., October 3.

The Hastings Court met this morning at 11 o'clock and was engaged throughout the day in hearing argument on a demurrer to and a motion to quash indictment No. 10, known as the big, or "dragnet," indictment against Charles H. Davis, former president, and Carter R. Bishop, former cashier of the Appomattox Trust Company, charging them jointly and alternately as principal and accessory with various larcenies at various times of the funds of the trust company.
The court had the record of the cases from the beginning read in order that the present status might be clearly understood.

In order to bring the demurrer and motion to quash properly before court, the two pleas of the defendant, Mr.
Davis, heretofore filed, and the repulcation of the Commonwealth's Attorney thereto, were withdrawn, with the understanding that they might be renewed later if necessary.

In filing the demurrer and notice to quash, Colonel James Mann, of counsel for Mr. Davis, submitted another preliminary motion—a plea for the discharge forever from prosecution of the defendant for the offenses charged against him in the indictment, known as No. 10 (the big indictment), because he had been held for said offenses for more than four terms of the court without trial. This motion was overruled and an exception noted.

Colonel Mann then began his argument on the demurrer and the motion to quash, taking them together. His grounds, briefly stated, were: The great length and complications and breadth of the indictment are such that it would be impossible for a jury rise to great confusion, and that the defendant would be so confounded in his defense that he could not properly present it to the jury.

Fair Trial Impossible.

In support of these allegations, Colonel Mann read to the court the following affidavit:

"I, James E. Cuthbert, a notary public for the city aforesaid, in the State of Virginia, do hereby certify that George S. Bernard, John A. Lee, Charles T. Lassiter and James Mann personally appeared before me in my said city, and, being first duly sworn, they and each other of them made oath that they are counsel for Charles H. Davis in the matter of the pending indictment charging him, jointly with Carter R. Bishop, with embezzlement and other offenses in 325 different counters in their opinion, because of the larger number of different transactions covered by said indictment, and the large number of ways in which each transaction is alleged, it will be impossible for their client to secure a fair and impartial trial; that if errors learned in the law as the attorney for the Commonwealth, who has a full knowledge of all the evidence he will introduce to sustain the charges made in said indictment, cannot specify the criminal act it is alleged the accused have committed, it would seem beyond reason to expect a jury to do so; that they as counsel cannot present to the jury the facts and circumstances which, in their judgment, it will be necessary to present upon an indictment covering so many transactions and containing 1,000 charges (for each count charges two distinct offenses), in such a way as to give the jury that clear understanding of the facts which is essential to their reaching a proper conclusion; and that a trial of the said indictment will necessarily result in unduly embarrassing the accused in his defense.

Colonel Mann stated that this affidavit had been made by counsel after most careful consideration of the indictment, which, in their opinion, has no parallel in the courts of this country. It has 1400 charges (325 counts of two charges each). It would be impossible to have a fair trial under it. Not even a jury of laymen, could understand it, because of the confusion that would inevitably arise. The indictment was discussed in all its phases and legal aspects, and was declared by the speaker to be bad as a whole and bad in every count.

Colonel Mann's argument covered the entire morning session of the court, after which a recess was taken until 1 o'clock. At the afternoon session

RACES POSTPONED BECAUSE OF INCLEMENT WEATHER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., October 3.—The heavy rain of last night caused a postponement of the race card at the first day of the Interstate Fair to-day, excepting a dash at six furlongs, which was won by George G. Hall. The attendance at the fair was practically nothing, because of the inclement weather.

MULLIN LIKELY TO PITCH HERE

Detroit Resembles Mathewson in Style, and Mack Responsible for His Selection.

The entire grandstand and a large part of the west bleachers have already been sold out for the game which Jimmie McAlleer's All-Stars will play with Connie Mack's champion athletics at Broad Street Park on next Wednesday. Some trouble has been caused Dr. Geo. F. Bagby, who is in charge of the tickets, because some of the out of town purchasers failed to inclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for return of the tickets ordered. These tickets are now at 821 East Main Street, where all of the seats are on sale, and may be secured by those who ordered them if they will call in person. Otherwise they will be resold.

From the advance sale it looks as if the original estimate of an attendance of 15,000 will be exceeded. At least this is certain: every bit of the available space in the park will be occupied, and it may be necessary to stretch ropes through centerfield in order to accommodate the overflow.
The requests for tickets have come from every section of the State, and a number have been received from North Carolina. Petersburg will practically turn out in a body.

So far as the game itself is concerned a glance at the names of the men who will take part is enough to convince that it will be a grand exhibition. Mullin, who has replaced Russell Ford, of the Highlanders, on the pitching staff of the All-Stars, will probably work in Richmond. Mullin was finally selected because Mack believes that he more nearly approaches Mathewson's style than any pitcher in the American League. The reason Mathewson is expected to open the world's series, and Mack wants his man to have their eyes peeled for Mathewson's breakers.

Unquestionably it is going to be a big day in Richmond—probably the biggest, from a purely sporting standpoint, which the city has ever known.
And watch that crowd enjoy itself.

Teams—Updike.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., October 3.—Raymond Walker M. Reams, a son of W. J.
Reams, and Miss Kate M. Updike, both of Lynchburg, were married this afternoon at the parsonage of the Franklin Street Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. W. Tupper Wingfield, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Reams left for Bedford City to spend their honeymoon.

AVIATOR LE VAN WILL MAKE DAILY FLIGHTS

Howard LeVan, the seventeen-year-old aviator, is meeting with much success in Pennsylvania. He was a feature of the Allentown Fair on September 20. LeVan will make two flights daily at the State Fair here next week, and on Saturday will enter a race of five miles around the mile track with an automobile. This race will prove thrilling to a degree. Here is what the Allentown Call said about LeVan:

"LeVan, in his 'Red Devil,' made two very pretty flights yesterday afternoon, flying over the Fair Grounds, just above the grandstand, on the second trip.
The first trip was made at 1:30 o'clock, and the second at 2:30 o'clock. The wind appeared at irregular intervals and made the trip rather hazardous. The mechanicians advised him not to attempt to fly at that time, but suddenly the youthful aviator sprang to his feet, and with a 'Come on, boys, we'll get her out,' started to open the tent to take the machine out to the runway.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau.
The Times-Dispatch.

Phone Madison 175.

Conditions, it is expected, will shortly change for the better in regard to the through street car service, which is strongly advocated by many South-Richmonders who ride during the rush hours.
Yesterday a Highland Park car was run through over the Hull Street line.
These cars, while slightly larger than the regular cars, are much more comfortable, and the extra weight on the Free Bridge. Besides the advantage the through schedule will give to the people of the Southside, it will add greatly to the comfort of the Northsiders, who have for a long time tried to get a ten-minute service to Highland Park.

Motor Cars Collide

A head-on collision, which damaged the automobile of J. R. Jones, of Petersburg, and Mr. Baker, of Henry, occurred late Sunday evening. While nobody was injured, it was more by good management. The cars, it is said, were going at a great rate of speed, but were each going about fifteen miles an hour. In the unavoidable collision the drivers failed to notice each other. The machines were put entirely out of commission, and will require much repairing before used again.

Need More Benches.

While the number of children enrolled on the opening day of the Oak Grove and Swansboro schools was gratifying to the extreme, much alarm is being felt over the report concerning the accommodations offered. It is said that in the Oak Grove school it children who are required to use the extra buildings put in shape for them, are not provided with sufficient benches and desks. This condition will be remedied immediately. Squire L. W. Chesnut, of the school board, having already sent in a rush order for more benches. In the Swansboro school things are in a worse condition.
